

APPENDIX II-J: ACADEMIC-RELATED STUDENT CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS, AS REPORTED BY THE OFFICE OF STUDENT LIFE

Academic Quiz Club (U of I)

To provide for students and alumni a chance to engage in both academic and pop culture trivia competitions, thus facilitating good social interaction with members in and outside of the University of Iowa Community and encouraging a free-exchange of knowledge.

Academy of Student Pharmacy -ASP Bookstore

Student chapter of the National Organization of the American Pharmaceutical Association. Activities include Katy's Kids, Free Medical clinic Volunteering, guest speakers, ASP Bookstore, Operation Immunization, National Meetings, and other professional and social events.

Academy of Students of Pharmacy (APhA-ASP)

APhA-ASP is primarily a professional organization dedicated to advancing pharmacy and providing community service, while furthering the careers of its members. Community service activities include Operation Immunization, Operation Diabetes, Health Fairs, blood drives, poison prevention programs, Heartburn Awareness, as well as volunteering at other community events. our members with many opportunities to develop their leadership potential and further their understanding of pharmacy by participating in events, programs, and activities that APhA-ASP offers.

Affirmationists Toastmasters

Our organization helps students and community members build confidence in their public speaking skills through prepared and impromptu speeches. There are also chances to pursue leadership roles within the club which will contribute to skills needed for the future.

A-90

Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity

To develop well-trained, ethical, skilled, resourceful, principal business leaders whose overall purpose is to deliberate, receive counsel and advice, and to study the teachings of our fraternity.

American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry

Encourage student involvement in organized dentistry and to provide education for parents and children about proper oral hygiene.

American Association of Women Dentists

AAWD is organized to provide a global network of mentor and support for female dentists in their professional growth, academic endeavors and personal lives. Additionally, the association is dedicated to enhancing and promoting participation and leadership roles for women in organized dentistry's.

American Marketing Association (U of I chapter)

The American Marketing Association provides students of the University with resources to find jobs in marketing and make contacts within the marketing field. American Marketing Association is one of the largest professional associations for marketers, has 38,000 members worldwide in every area of marketing.

American Medical Women's Assoc - UI Stdt Branch (AMWA)

To promote the education and training of medical students and physician's concerning women's public health issues. To encourage women to study and practice medicine; to ensure them equal opportunity to do so; to cooperate with other organizations having comparable interests; and to support medical relief services.

American Society of Health-Systems Pharmacists (U of I)

It is an organization for pharmacy students that are interested in learning more about opportunities available in the pharmacy profession, such as residency programs and fellowships. Students will also enhance their leadership ability, provide service to the community, and improve their networking skills.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers

To maintain a student chapter of the professional organization ASME and to support Mechanical Engineering projects and studies.

AMSA University of Iowa Premedical Chapter

To provide an environment that supports the creative ideas of physicians-in-training; To promote, encourage and maintain a cohesive relationship with the students and non-student organizations of the University of Iowa; To serve as a forum for discussion of health issues and develop a policy agenda for physicians-in-training; To affect change in the medical education process and to make it more responsive to the needs of students and society; To maintain its status as an independent organization; To maintain its primary identity as an organization for physicians-in-training; To promote and maintain programs that enhance the quality of health care in the community; To be financially independent and maintain a stable financial base; To continue to develop health-care leadership; To seek, develop and provide membership services to the physicians-in-training community; To increase knowledge of health information among members and the public; and To periodically re-evaluate the above purposes and ensure that they are carried out in a proper fashion.

Association of Geology Graduate Students

To provide a sense of community to graduate students in geology at the University of Iowa, aid geology graduate students in preparing for and attending conferences related to their specific field of interest, maintain a strong, active relationship with other earth and planetary scientists both in academia and in the private sector, and to enhance the abilities of graduate students as effective teachers and researchers.

Association of Graduate Students in English (AGSE)

AGSE represents graduate students in the U of I English Dept., in order to foster communication between students and between students and the department administration, by publishing a newsletter, placing student representatives on dept. committees, and promoting activities aimed at professional development of graduate students.

Association of Nursing Students (UIANS)

To have direct input into standards of nursing education and influence educational process. To influence health care, nursing education, and practice through legislative activities as appropriate. To promote and encourage participation in community affairs and activities toward improved health care and the resolution of related social issues. To represent students to the consumer, to institutions, and other organizations. To promote and encourage students participation in interdisciplinary activities.

Association of Pre-Physician Assistant Students

To inform students and other individuals about the Physician Assistant Profession at the University of Iowa as well as the physician assistant profession. Meetings will include speakers from the program and physician assistants.

Biology Undergraduate Society (BUGS)

The Biological Undergraduate Society's purpose is to educate and provide an outlet for undergraduate biology students to come together and learn about relevant biological issues.

Biomedical Engineering Student Society

Organize and lead social, fundraising, and educational events for the Biomedical Engineering. department.

Biostatistics Student Organization

The purpose of this organization is to assist Biostatistics graduate students in their academic and professional achievement. In addition, the organization facilitates closer relationships among students as well as between students and faculty.

Caduceus

Caduceus is the Student Committee on Medical Education and is a component of Medical Student Government. All medical students are members of Caduceus. Our overall goal is to evaluate and enhance educational opportunities at the University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine. Our organization is involved with many aspects of medical education, especially regarding constructive evaluation of both pre-clinical and clinical curricula through ongoing formal student feedback and meetings with course directors. We also make an annual "Survival Guide" for incoming students, sponsor and annual outing to raise organ donation awareness, etc...

College of Public Health Student Association

College of Public Health Student Association was established to expand opportunities in professional development and outreach, discuss student issues, and create a great sense of community for all students in the College of Public Health.

Delta Sigma Pi (Professional Business Fraternity)

Delta Sigma Pi is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in universities. To encourage scholarship, social activity, and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice. To promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce, and to further a higher standard of commercial ethics and culture, and the civic and commercial welfare of the community.

Environmental Law Society

To pursue projects at the nexus of the law and environment.

A-92

Epidemiology Student Association

To promote the study and use of epidemiological theory and techniques of practice, as well as to increase the awareness of occupational and educational opportunities. We will also encourage communication and building a sense of community within the College of Public Health students and faculty members.

Equal Justice Foundation

"... to provide as many Iowa law students as possible the opportunity to work in public interest clerkships around the country by raising money to fund summer work grants and world and to advocate the often overlooked benefits of public service. In doing so, the EJF strives to open windows of opportunity for persons and legal issues untended to, and to create a lasting commitment of the law student to public service and pro bono work."

Financial Management Association

The University of Iowa chapter of the FMA is an undergraduate organization that is devoted to professional development and provides students with an opportunity to learn about the financial marketplace. Professionals from the field speak at our biweekly meetings to give insights about finance careers and the current marketplace.

Graduate Association of Political Science

To provide an academic resource for political science graduate students, act as a liaison between the graduate students and faculty within the political science department, and achieve a greater sense of community among graduate students.

Graduate Consulting and Technology Association

To educate and develop the careers of the graduate business students at the University of Iowa in the fields of business consulting, technology, and strategic management; and create a culture focused on developing these skills in the spirit of leadership at the Tippie School of Management.

Graduate Financial Management Association

The goal of the GFMA is to provide opportunities for students to enrich their graduate studies through activities such as forums, company trips, study sessions and guest speakers geared towards careers in finance.

Graduate History Society (GHS)

Graduate students in History use this organization as an official vehicle of communication between students, faculty, and the university. This society also promotes historical studies at the university and in the surrounding community.

Graduate Philosophical Society (U of I)

To promote a community for the philosophy graduate students, which will help facilitate the philosophical exchange of ideas and provide a forum for graduate students to more closely interact with others in the field.

Graduate Social Work Student Association, Iowa City Group

To bring graduate level social work students together for information, social justice, civic, and recreational purposes.

Graduate Student Anthropology Association (U of I)

To provide support for graduate students in the Department of Anthropology, in the areas important for academic and professional development within the discipline.

Graduate Student Development Assoc. (GSDA)

GSDA serves as a coordinating body to attend to the needs of the students in the Student Development Program in Post-Secondary Education. Members plan and attend professional conferences and campus programs, develop their professional competencies with the support of faculty advisors, and foster a sense of community among peers.

Graduate Students in Science Education

This group serves as an academic student organization to help enrich the academic life of graduate students in the department of science education to help promote the well being of the department

Integrative Medicine Interest Group

This group seeks to inspire medical students and allopathic physicians to integrate effective CAM modalities into their practices.

International Business Student Association

This organization prepares students for careers in International Business, domestically and abroad. Activities include skill development, leadership trainings, foreign language assistance, and exposure to cultures different from one's own.

International Law Society

The purpose of the International Law Society (ILS) is to increase student and faculty awareness of international law and issues. ILS members arrange and organize both a yearly speakers program and an annual symposium on international issues. Members also promote the College of Law's study abroad programs in Comparative and International Law, participate in the annual Philip C. Jessup International Moot Court Competition, and serve a social function by bringing together faculty and students who share an interest international affairs.

Iowa American Student Dental Association (IASDA)

To educate students about issues in the dental profession by encouraging student involvement in organized dentistry.

Iowa Student Bar Association

The Iowa Student Bar Association (ISBA) acts as the student government at the law school and is both a collective voice for the student body and a source of organization and funding for a variety of college activities and programs.

The ISBA provides opportunities for students to get involved, be informed, and have fun. ISBA brings in speakers, sponsors events with other organizations, and published the ISBA newsletter, which is distributed to each student.

Iowa Student Medical Research Club

The purpose of the Medical Student Research Club is to promote awareness and involvement of medical students in research. This group seeks to bring possible research mentors to the group meetings to discuss current events and research. The Medical Research Club sponsors Medical Student Research Day where our peers have an opportunity to present work that they have done within the last year to other faculty as well as other medical students.

Iowa Student Psychology Association (ISPA)

ISPA's goal is to advance the study of the science of psychology; to encourage, stimulate, and maintain scholarship of the individual students in the field of psychology.

J. Reuben Clark Law Society

Promote Community service, social activities, and job placement.

Journal of Corporation Law

The Journal of Corporation Law publishes articles examining subjects of current importance to businesses, scholars, and the practicing bar through a student-published legal periodical specializing in corporate law.

Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity

Kappa Psi is a national pharmacy professional fraternity. Members participate in numerous philanthropic, fund-raising and social events. Members network with other students and professionals, locally and nationally and have opportunities to practice pharmacy skills in the community.

Law Students for Choice

Law Students for Choice is committed to educating, organizing, and supporting pro-choice law students to ensure that a new generation of lawyers will be prepared to successfully defend and expand reproductive rights.

Library & Info Science Stdt Chapter of American Lib Assoc. (LISSO)

A student chapter of the American Library Association (ALA) that supports student involvement in professional development and networking through speakers, demonstrations of resources, and social events. To act as a representative body for all students in the Library and Information Science Department, and to act as a liaison between Library Science students and faculty to promote student activities, guest lectures, and other appropriate means.

Master of Business Administration Association (MBAA)

MBAA's primary goal is to increase the value of the Tippie MBA. By facilitating the development of relationships to increase employment opportunities, providing feedback on and suggesting curricular changes the curriculum, and assisting in the recruiting efforts for future MBA students.

Math Grads Board (MGB)

MGB exists to enrich the graduate mathematics experience at UI. MGB and its committees shall organize and facilitate programming by and for graduate students, while also increasing opportunities for interaction with math faculty and undergraduate majors. A primary goal of MGB is to increase vertical integration within the UI Math Department; MGB recognizes that graduate students are the natural bridge between undergraduate and faculty, and seek to make connections whenever possible.

Medicus Pre-Medical Society

Medicus is a student organization designed to educate pre-medical undergraduates on issues related to the medical field. In order to achieve this goal, Medicus sponsors a variety of educational programs designed to stimulate its members on both academic and social levels. The group exposes pre-medical students to many facets of medicine in order to give them first-hand experience and knowledge of the medical profession.

Microbiology Undergraduate Student Association

The purpose of MUSA is to encourage, advance, and increase interest in the science of microbiology; to provide opportunities for members of MUSA in terms of faculty and peer relations, scholarships, and science meetings, as well as participation in international conferences.

Mock Trial Club (U of I)

To teach trial procedure and performance technique in competition with other schools.

Music Therapy Student Association

To inform members, students, faculty, and the community about the profession of music therapy and the benefits of services music therapist's provide. This association serves the community through various activities within the club and raise funds in order to host speakers and buy equipment for the music therapy department.

National Association for Women MBA (formerly Graduate Women in Business)

The National Association of Women MBAs is dedicated to promoting women in business and increasing the opportunities for women MBAs.

National Science Teachers Association (U of I)

The University of Iowa's Student Chapter of NSTA shall serve as an academic student organization for future science teachers and those interested in science education at the University of Iowa.

National Student Speech Language Hearing Association (NSSLHA)

To benefit members by continually improving support, promotion, and advocacy of the highest quality preparation of professionals in audiology, speech-language pathology, and speech and hearing sciences.

Organization for Women Law Students & Staff (OWLSS)

To study the changing needs and problems of women in the legal profession, and develop, recommend and implement new programs with particular emphasis upon the needs of women at the University of Iowa College of Law.

Orthopedic Surgery Interest Group

To fulfill student's interests and needs in the field of orthopedic surgery.

Pharmacy Recovery Network (U of I)

The University of Iowa Pharmacy Recovery Network (UIPRN) is the College of Pharmacy's branch of the Iowa Pharmacy Recovery Network (IPRN). IPRN is designed to help pharmacy professionals who have some form of impairment to identify their problem, enter a treatment program, and provide monitoring during the recovery process. At the college level, UIPRN promotes awareness to students, faculty, and the community about different types of addiction and how to understand and relate to individuals who have addiction in their lives.

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, UI prelaw Chapter (formerly prelaw Society)

Phi Alpha Delta Law fraternity's mission is to provide an effective, cohesive forum, smaller than that of the entire undergraduate school student body; to promote the principles, ideals, and precepts of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International; to promote the principle of professional advancement of its members; to promote the principles of liberty and equal justice under the law for all its citizens.

Phi Lambda Sigma

Phi Lambda Sigma encourages participation in all pharmacy activities and encourages collaboration with other campus pharmacy organizations. This organization focuses specifically on developing the leadership potential of its members. Peers select new members and encourage less active students to become active and contribute to the advancement of pharmacy.

Physical Therapy Student Organization (U of I)

Physical Therapy students at Iowa have the opportunity to represent their future profession with groups from other campuses and host educational programs about physical therapy for other campus groups and the general public.

Predental Club (U of I)

To provide information and support for students interested in pursuing a dental education and future career in dentistry.

Pre-Optometry Club (U of I)

The purpose of this group is to inform students about optometry schools and the optometry profession and to prepare students for the Optometry Admission Test, school applications, and interviews. This organization hosts guest speakers, trips to eye clinics, trips to AOA meetings, fund-raisers, and engaging discussions at regular meetings.

Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA)

PRSSA serves its members by enhancing their knowledge of Public Relations and providing access to professional development opportunities; and to serve the Public Relations profession by helping to develop highly qualified, well-prepared professionals.

Religion Graduate Students Organization

The Religion Graduate Student Organization (RGSO) is a group committed to meeting the needs of graduate students in the University of Iowa's Department of Religious Studies. Group activities range from professional development to social gatherings to service opportunities.

A-96

Rex Montgomery Physician Assistant Student Society

The official organization of the PA students, this society's purpose is to promote academic achievement and clinical excellence. A chief goal of the organization is to instill in Iowa PA's the importance of keeping abreast of current medical developments.

Science Fiction League of Iowa Students

Promotes Science Fiction, fantasy, as well as animation, in all of its forms. Students with interest in this area can become involved with one another to enjoy science fiction and create a network on campus.

Society of Professional Journalists

This society provides an opportunity for journalists to meet and work together to evaluate their profession, raise ethical standards, safeguard the constitutional guarantee to the flow of information from sources to the public, and recognize outstanding achievements by journalists. Members enjoy contact and collaboration with professional journalists in the area.

Student Iowa School Counseling Association

A coordinating body to attend to the needs of the student members of the SISCA at the U of I. SISCA provides professional development programs, helps students gain professional standards and competencies, and to create a student, faculty, and staff community in school counseling.

Student National Pharmaceutical Association

To plan, organize, coordinate, and execute programs geared toward the improvement of the health, educational, and social environment of the community; while providing opportunities for professional development.

Tau Beta Pi

The purpose of Tau Beta Pi is to recognize outstanding engineering students and foster a spirit of liberal culture in the engineering college through community service, college activities, and fellowship.

Theta Tau-Professional Engineering Fraternity

The purpose of Theta Tau is to develop and maintain a high standard of professional interest among its members, and to unite them in a strong bond of fraternal fellowship.

Tippie Leadership Association

A leadership association for graduate business students at the University of Iowa. The association encourages student involvement to create a culture focused on building leaders at the Tippie School of Management.

Tippie Optimist Chapter

The purpose of the Tippie Optimist Chapter is to provide our members with community service opportunities as well as professional development, with the goal of providing students with professional development opportunities.

Transnational Law & Contemporary Problems

TLCP is unique in its approach and content. It provides the worldwide international and comparative law communities with innovative matters of interest not commonly found in other law journals and reviews. Mindful that law is quintessentially a collaborative discipline, TLCP calls itself “an interdisciplinary law journal.” Each of its issues focuses on contemporary problems of transnational, or global, significance, typically presenting a multidisciplinary symposium edited by an invited guest editor knowledgeable in the field.

Undergraduate Art History Club

To further promote the field of Art History to students of an undergraduate level at the University of Iowa. UAHC will provide a forum for disseminating information relating to the discipline of art history, improve relations between students and faculty, and provide social and educational opportunities for interested students.

William G. Hammond Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity

Provides an effective, cohesive forum, smaller than that of the entire law school body. Members are encouraged to further their professional development and to stimulate excellence in scholarship; Activities include those that promote a forum for the interchange between members of this chapter and members of the practicing bar, the bench, and the law professors, with the goal of creating a lasting professional network.

Women in Business

Women in Business goals: address the needs and concerns of faculty, graduate and undergraduate women in the College of Business through professional and educational activities. Recognize ethical dilemmas and workforce challenges that may be of particular concern to women in business. Consider means to enhance the lives of business women including public policies and career development.