

APPENDIX II-M: STUDENT EMPLOYEES BY TYPE OF WORK, GENDER, ETHNICITY, RESIDENCY, AND COLLEGE

Fall 2006 Part-Time and Work-Study Student Employees by Type of Work

In fall 2006 the Office of Student Financial Aid compiled information about 4,594 actively employed part-time student workers and 1,072 actively employed work-study students for the “Part-Time Wage Survey” and the “Work-Study Wage Survey.” The following chart and table provide information about the type of work these students were engaged in at the time of the surveys.

Figure A(II-M).1:

Number of Part-Time and Work-Study Students Employed in Fall 2006 by Type of Work

A-105

Table A(II-M).1:

Number of Part-Time and Work-Study Students Employed in Fall 2006 by Type of Work

Type of Work	Number of Part-Time Student Employees	Number of Students in Work-Study
Academic and scientific research activities	206	16
Administrative support for faculty	35	0
Administrative support for office staff	47	12
Audiovisual	41	3

Type of Work	Number of Part-Time Student Employees	Number of Students in Work-Study
Building, laboratory and grounds maintenance	106	10
Cash management	98	13
Computer work	191	25
Delivery of mail and other materials/supplies	23	1
Design and illustration	55	2
Electronic work	0	0
Food services	568	126
General science labs	437	79
Health sciences & clinical labs	277	22
Inventory Management	96	8
Laundry and housekeeping	30	2
Libraries	137	155
Monitor work	91	37
Museums	13	16
Musical productions	0	0
Office Work	940	279
Parking ramp operations	156	15
Plant/laboratory animal caretaker	1	0
Recreational services	258	20
Sales	106	27
Security & campus law enforcement	11	2
Theatre work	106	8
Transportation operations	128	26
Video technician	17	0
Working with individuals	404	168
Writing, editing, & proofing	2	0

A-106

Fall 2007 Part-Time and Work-Study Student Employees by Gender, Ethnicity, Residency, and College

A September 2007 point-in-time count of undergraduate, degree-seeking students found 3,961 students employed part-time and 627 employed under work-study programs. The following charts and tables illustrate the distribution of these student employees by gender, ethnicity, residency, and college.

Figure A(II-M).2:

Fall 2007 Count of Undergraduate, Degree-Seeking Students Employed Part-Time and in Work-Study Programs by Gender

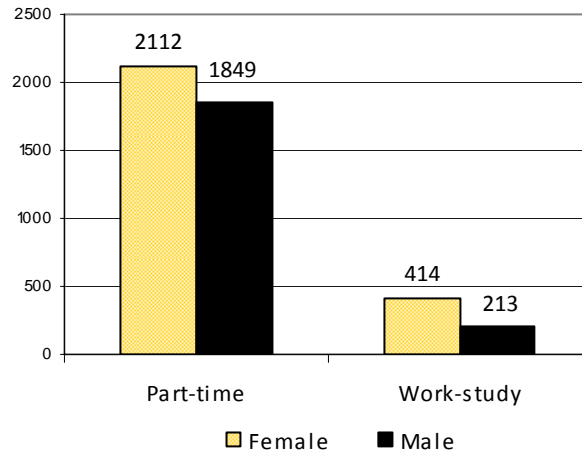

Table A(II-M).2:

Fall 2007 Count of Undergraduate, Degree-Seeking Students Employed Part-Time and in Work-Study Programs by Ethnicity

	Part-time	Work-study
Native American	10	2
Black	93	22
Hispanic/Latino(a)	109	25
Asian	192	36
Caucasian	3365	523
International	80	0
Pacific Islander	1	0
Not indicated	111	19

A-107

Figure A(II-M).3:

Fall 2007 Count of Undergraduate, Degree-Seeking Students Employed Part-Time and in Work-Study Programs by Residency

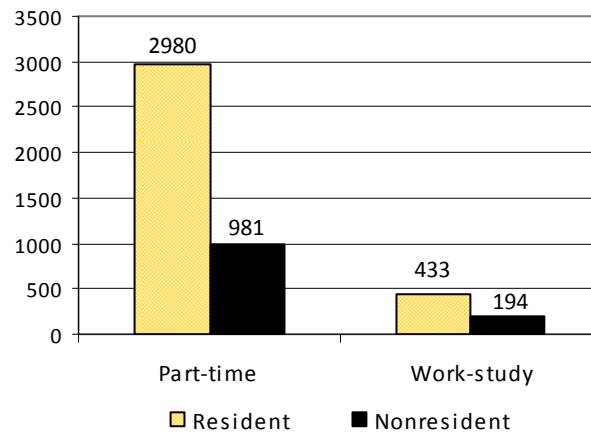

Table A(II-M).3:

Fall 2007 Count of Undergraduate, Degree-Seeking Students Employed Part-Time and in Work-Study Programs by College

	Part-time	Work-study
Liberal Arts	2948	552
Business	451	43
Engineering	377	26
Nursing	185	6